

Most committees are made up of Board Members, however based upon specific areas of expertise; Board Members may recommend and invite persons outside of the board to participate on specialized committees. .

Currently there are committees working on Marketing, Membership, Communications, Marcellus Shale and Chamber of Commerce Legislative Issues.

To volunteer for any work with the POA simply contact any POA board member. Members and their contact information can be found in Board Members under the About POA tab.