

The numbers are actually 911 Emergency Response related and can be crossed referenced to the dock's location street address. The dock number is the location of the dock in distance in a clockwise direction from the dam. When reporting an accident or incident from the water, by giving the 911 dispatcher the closest dock number, it will aid the emergency responders to be able to find your location much more quickly.